- B. Winston Wright, Planning Manager, and Franca Rosengren, Senior Planner, of the Ventura County Planning Division presented for committee input proposed changes to the Ventura County Non-Coastal Zoning Ordinance to permit backyard beekeeping.

- Public comment:
  - Larry Pender – Inquired whether backyard beekeepers would need to register with the County, if they were required to register in other municipalities, why the County had limited the minimum lot size to 10,000 sq. ft., how many hobbyist beekeepers are currently registered, and expressed dissatisfaction and confusion with the ordinance as-proposed.
- Motion: Recommend the ordinance include language requiring hobbyist/backyard beekeepers to receive and acknowledge the Ventura County Right to Farm Ordinance, only allow honeybees for backyard beekeepers, and that Planning staff investigate the possibility of limiting agricultural liability for damage to backyard beehives.
By Waters, seconded by Jones
Vote: 3-0

- C. Lisa Woodburn of Jensen Design, with Amcal Housing, presented a proposed modification to the previously approved landscape plan for the Somis Farmworker Housing Development project (PL19-0046) for APAC approval

- Public comment:
  - Maureen McGuire – Posited that field fumigations adjacent to the proposed community garden location would cause the fumigations buffer zone to fall into the community garden area, increasing the incompatibility and decreasing the usability of the community garden.

- Motion: Find the proposed change inconsistent with the Ventura County Agricultural/Urban Buffer policy, Deny the proposed change, and direct the applicant team to investigate how best to render the proposed change compliant with the policy if they wished to continue requesting the change.
